

Hello, my name is Kimberly Clark, the course manager for the Personnel Security Seminar - Customized - Adjudications.

This course is designed to meet the specific personnel security training needs of a requesting organization with emphasis on implementation of the national adjudicative guidelines. The content, location, and format of this training is determined by the requester.

Additional information regarding the Personnel Security Seminar - Customized - Adjudications is available from the CDSE course catalog.

Thank you.